1st Reading: Ephesians 2. 11-end read by Bob Clark

So then, remember that at one time you Gentiles by birth, called "the uncircumcision" by those who are called "the circumcision"—a physical circumcision made in the flesh by human hands— remember that you were at that time without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

Hymn instead of Te Deum 'Let all mortal flesh keep silence' (NEH 295)

2nd Reading: Mark 6. 30-34, 53-end read by Mark Jones

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

NOTICES

Art Festival

It is with much regret that we have had to postpone the this year's Art Festival until September next year.

The situation is just too volatile to go ahead with the amount of planning and expense that it takes to organise, with the possibility that we may have to cancel at the last minute.

Evensong

Evensong has recommenced at 6.30pm every Sunday but there will, however, be a break during August while Gary is on holiday.

The nave is used and choir members will sit in the choir stalls so there is plenty of social distancing. This is a very good step in opening up our worship to those faithful 'Evensongers' who have missed it for so long. Singing will not be possible until we get the green light but we can hum and follow the words of the hymns 'a la' the morning services.

Summer Hamper Funding

Summer hamper scheme - the distribution of the food hampers starts again for the school holidays. Please leave your gifts in the coloured boxes in the hospitality area in church.

The Licensing and installation of Revd Oliver Blease

This is taking place on Wednesday 21st July 7.30pm at Christ Church, Radlett and there may be spaces available. If you would like to come, please contact Robert.

DICE

(Diversity, Inclusion, Cohesion, Engagement) was formed at Christ Church, Radlett, following the Black Lives Matter movement last year and there is representation at Christ Church and St Martin's, Shenley.

We have been asked if a member of Aldenham Church could be represented on the Committee, which meets via Zoom presently but hopefully will have actual meetings in the near future. If you are interested or would like more information please contact the Vicar.
