Psalm 90, 1 - 8

1st Reading: Thessalonians 5, 1 - 11

read by Isabella Frankish

But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that I should write to you. For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labour pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober. For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. But let us who are of the day be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation. For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with Him.

Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing.

Hymn instead of Te Deum 'For the beauty of the earth' (NEH 285)

2nd Reading: Matthew 25, 14 - 30

read by Linda Lambert

For the kingdom of heaven is like a man traveling to a far country, who called his own servants and delivered his goods to them. And to one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability; and immediately he went on a journey. Then he who had received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. And likewise he who had received two gained two more also. But he who had received one went and dug in the ground, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

"So he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; look, I have gained five more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.' He also who had received two talents came and said, 'Lord, you delivered to me two talents; look, I have gained two more talents besides them.' His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

"Then he who had received the one talent came and said, 'Lord, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed. And I was afraid, and went and hid your talent in the ground. Look, there you have what is yours.'

"But his lord answered and said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed. So you ought to have deposited my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to him who has ten talents.

'For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have abundance; but from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away. And cast the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

URGENT HELP NEEDED

The old people's lunch club, which meets every Thursday at the Guide Headquarters, Radlett, is in urgent need of cooks and drivers. The required commitment is about once a month. If you think you could help, would like to know more, or know someone who might, please contact Anne Newton on 01923 857230 or apnewton60@gmail.com

Thank you!

Christmas Hampers

The parishes of Radlett & Aldenham will be offering a Christmas Hamper to 25 families who we try to support in our community.

We can only afford to do this because of your generosity.

Once again, this year we are asking parishioners to donate a box of biscuits or chocolates to add to our hampers.

MANY THANKS for your support.
Please leave donations at the back of the church.

SATURDAY
COFFEE/CONCERTS

On Saturday Dec 3rd.

The Kyra (gospel) Choir bring their special music to us.

On Saturday Jan 6th

Saxophonist Stephen Sidders with friends.

All concerts start at 11.30 with coffee and cake before!

Details soon but please put the dates in your diary!
