THANK YOU

With brain testing and some amazing music last Saturday we had a busy but fantastic day. Pianist Joshua Harris gave the piano a good work out in the morning with some wonderful classical music and the evening quiz was a huge success despite proceedings being interrupted by 3 fire engines arriving! Fortunately not a fire in the Social Club but further up the car park in a storage hut. Worst of all, it delayed the fish and chips!

A huge thank you to everyone who helped stage these two amazing events and especially to ace quiz leader Beth who not only compiled some great questions but also did all the introductions in the morning.

As well as being a lot of fun and enjoyment the morning concert raised around £500 and the quiz around £300 - what a great day!

Streaming issues!

Oh dear, whilst the events last weekend were amazing we had some gremlins in the system again. This meant that only half of the concert was shown on the stream and none of the Sunday Morning service.

Huge apologies for this and hope it didn't cause any annoyance with you - it should all be fine this weekend.

Psalm 8

O LORD our Governor, how excellent is thy Name in all the world : thou that hast set thy glory above the heavens!

Out of the mouth of very babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies : that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

For I will consider thy heavens, even the works of thy fingers : the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained.

What is man, that thou art mindful of him : and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

Thou madest him lower than the angels : to crown him with glory and worship.

Thou makest him to have dominion of the works of thy hands : and thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet;

All sheep and oxen : yea, and the beasts of the field;

The fowls of the air, and the fishes of the sea : and whatsoever walketh through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Governor : how excellent is thy Name in all the world!

1st Reading: Proverbs 8, 1 - 4, 22 - 31. read by Esther Pedlar

Does not wisdom call,
and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way,
at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town,
at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
‘To you, O people, I call,
and my cry is to all that live.
he LORD created me at the beginning of his work,
the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up,
at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped,
before the hills, I was brought forth—
when he had not yet made earth and fields,
or the world’s first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there,
when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above,
when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world
and delighting in the human race.

Hymn instead of Te Deum, God we bless you, God we praise you. (On separate sheet.)

2nd Reading: John 16, 12 -15, read by the Fongho family.
I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.
