Psalm 112

1. Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord : he hath great delight in his commandments.
- 2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth : the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.
- 3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness : he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
- 5 A good man is merciful, and lendeth : and will guide his words with discretion.
- 6 For he shall never be moved : and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings : for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.
- 8 His heart is established, and will not shrink : until he see his desire upon his enemies.
- 9 He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor : and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.
- 10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him : he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

1st Reading: Hebrews 13.1–8, 15–16, read by Linda Lambert

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence,

'The Lord is my helper;

I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Hymn instead of Te Deum, God, we praise You, God, we bless You (on separate sheet).

2nd Reading: Luke 14.1, 7–14, read by Bob Clark

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

Hymns instead of Jubilate Deo: NEH 334 All people that on earth do dwell.
